Join us for a heartfelt evening as we stand with our neighbors recovering from the devastating fires. Some Palisades Symphony members lost their homes, making this free Fire Recovery Benefit Concert all the more meaningful. Alexander Wasserman has donated his performance for this cause and will be playing on a grand piano generously provided by Kawai. Donations will help musicians, singers, and organizations affected by the fire as we aim to bring hope and healing through music. We invite you to come to this special benefit concert at this challenging time to support the victims of the fire.
